EVENT: MFA OPEN STUDIO NIGHT

Now in its seventh year, MFA Open Studio Night—where the public is invited into the artists’ and designers’ studios—has become a beloved tradition. Our outstanding class of forty-two artists and designers will showcase their work in the MFA Gallery, with several pieces also being available for purchase. The evening will include live student performances, music, and light refreshments.

Please join us for an interesting and engaging evening as our master of fine arts students share their creative process and work.
